FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Today, our readings lead us to reflect on the themes of provision, transformation, and the true Bread of Life. Imagine an old man who visits a local diner every day for lunch, always ordering the soup du jour. One day, he asks for a little more bread. The manager, wanting to satisfy him, instructs the waitress to give him four slices instead of two the next day. Yet, the old man still asks for more bread. Determined to please him, the manager offers an entire loaf, but the man still isn't satisfied. Finally, in a grand gesture, the manager presents a six-foot-long loaf, only to hear the man say, "It was good, but I see you are back to giving only two slices of bread."

This tale reflects a deeper truth about human nature and our constant yearning for more of something that never truly satisfies. The Israelites in the desert, the people chasing Jesus for more bread, and the old man at the diner all share a common trait: they were never satisfied, always wanting more. They were trapped in their own world of self-concern, never realizing that no amount of bread would ever be enough. Our culture often locks us into self-centered and self-absorbed concerns, imprisoning us with our own agendas and losing sight of the greater good and the needs of others.

In the Gospel, Jesus offers the remedy for this insatiable hunger: to work not for food that perishes but for food that endures to eternal life. This enduring food comes from doing the works of God, achieved when our faith rests in the Son of God, who loved us so much that He gave Himself without reservation on the cross. To do the works of God is to follow Him and to become like Him, the true Bread of Life.

St. Augustine would often end Mass by saying to his people, "Be what you eat." As we receive the Eucharist today, may we become that loving and caring presence of Christ in the world. Let us be motivated by a joyful gratitude for what we already have and by a constant concern for the needs of others. Let us attend not only to our own hungers but also to the hungers of those around us—those with empty stomachs, aching hearts, and lonely spirits crying out for help.

May we go forth today with renewed faith, trusting in God's provision, embracing the transformation He calls us to, and seeking the eternal nourishment that only Christ can provide.

God Bless!

Fr. Patrick

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

It is diocesan policy, set by the Bishop, that all couples wishing to marry must begin Church preparations AT LEAST six months before the planned date of the wedding. Couples planning to marry should contact one of the priests or deacons as soon as they decide to marry – even BEFORE making reservations at a catering hall, etc.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE

A reminder to everyone to please turn off cell phones before entering the church and during Mass. Please refrain from sending or receiving text messages. It is very distracting to those who are praying.

WELCOME! If you are new to our parish please feel free to introduce yourself to one of the priests or deacons after Mass today. We kindly invite you to come to the Parish Office and register as a member of Our Lady of Lourdes. Registration is important for all parishioners because then we are able to issue sponsor letters for Baptism, Confirmation and Matrimony. We can also give end of the year statements of your contributions to the church through regular use of the envelopes. We can also help you with letters of recommendation for employment, school, etc. Your registration will also help us with our parish census in knowing the number of Catholics in Queens Village and surrounding areas. Thank you and welcome

Happy Summer!

PROGRAMA PARROQUIAL DE LA COMUNIDAD HISPANA

18º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 4 de Agosto	Se celebra la misa por Pedro y Rosa Gonzalez Y por Hermelinda y Jose Olivo Villatoro

Queridos Amigos,

Hoy, nuestras lecturas nos llevan a reflexionar sobre los temas de la provisión, la transformación y el verdadero Pan de Vida. Imaginemos a un anciano que visita un restaurante local todos los días para almorzar, siempre pidiendo la sopa del día. Un día, pide un poco más de pan. El gerente, queriendo satisfacerlo, le indica a la mesera que le dé cuatro rebanadas en lugar de dos al día siguiente. Sin embargo, el anciano sigue pidiendo más pan. Decidido a complacerlo, el gerente ofrece una barra de pan entera, pero el hombre aún no está satisfecho. Finalmente, en un gesto grandioso, el gerente presenta una barra de pan de seis pies de largo, solo para escuchar al hombre decir: “Estuvo bien, pero veo que has vuelto a dar solo dos rebanadas de pan”.

Este relato refleja una verdad más profunda sobre la naturaleza humana y nuestro constante anhelo por más de algo que nunca nos satisface realmente. Los israelitas en el desierto, la gente persiguiendo a Jesús por más pan, y el anciano en el restaurante comparten un rasgo común: nunca estaban satisfechos, siempre querían más. Estaban atrapados en su propio mundo de preocupación por sí mismos, sin darse cuenta de que ninguna cantidad de pan sería suficiente. Nuestra cultura a menudo nos encierra en preocupaciones egocéntricas y autoabsorbidas, aprisionándonos con nuestras propias agendas y perdiendo de vista el bien mayor y las necesidades de los demás.

En el Evangelio, Jesús ofrece el remedio para este hambre insaciable: trabajar no por el alimento que perece, sino por el alimento que perdura para la vida eterna. Este alimento perdurable viene de hacer las obras de Dios, logradas cuando nuestra fe descansa en el Hijo de Dios, quien nos amó tanto que se entregó sin reservas en la cruz. Hacer las obras de Dios es seguirlo y convertirnos en Él, el verdadero Pan de Vida.

San Agustín solía terminar la Misa diciendo a su gente: "Sean lo que comen". Al recibir la Eucaristía hoy, que nos convirtamos en esa presencia amorosa y solidaria de Cristo en el mundo. Seamos motivados por una gratitud alegre por lo que ya tenemos y por una constante preocupación por las necesidades de los demás. Atendamos no solo a nuestras propias hambres, sino también a las hambres de quienes nos rodean: aquellos con estómagos vacíos, corazones dolientes y espíritus solitarios clamando por ayuda.

Que salgamos hoy con una fe renovada, confiando en la provisión de Dios, abrazando la transformación a la que nos llama, y buscando el alimento eterno que solo Cristo puede proporcionar.

¡Dios los bendiga!
